

CONTENTS

PART I

THE APPROACH TO FIELD WORK

CHAPTER		PAGE
I	THE PLACE OF FIELD WORK IN SOCIAL RESEARCH	3- 18
	Science Is Impartial	4
	The Tasks of Science	4- 5
	The Inductive Method	6- 11
	Field Work and the Inductive Method	11- 16
	Field Work in Social Research	16- 18
	Selected References	18
II	CRITICAL EXAMINATION OF DOCUMENTARY SOURCES PRECEDES GOOD FIELD WORK	19- 45
	The Sceptical Attitude Toward Documents	19- 20
	The Historical Method	20- 21
	External Criticism	21- 24
	Internal Criticism	24- 26
	The Author's Good Faith and Accuracy	26- 36
	Summary of Principles of Criticism	36- 38
	Partial List of Common Documentary Sources	38- 45
	Selected References	45

PART II

SCOPE AND ORGANIZATION OF FIELD WORK

III	TYPES OF FIELD WORK AND THEIR PROBLEMS	46- 72
	The Three Types of Field Work	46- 47
	Problems of Field Work	47- 51

CHAPTER

PAGE

	The Investigation of Industrial Relations	51- 54
	Health Investigation	54- 65
	Infant Mortality	65- 71
	Selected References	71- 72
IV	THE INVESTIGATIVE PROCEDURE OF CASE WORK	73- 97
	The Underlying Logic of Procedure	74- 79
	The First Interview	79- 81
	Sources Outside the Family	81- 87
	Record Writing	87- 89
	Examples of Medical-Social Case Inves- tigation	89- 97
	Selected References	97
V	SAMPLES THAT ARE REPRESENTATIVE— THE PARTIAL CANVASS—INVESTIGATIVE PROCEDURE OF THE SOCIAL SURVEY	98-126
	The Social Survey	99-100
	Survey of Syracuse, New York	100-105
	Survey of Springfield, Illinois	105-107
	Methods of Social Surveys	107-112
	Examples of Representative Sampling	112-116
	The Theory of Inductive Inference	116-118
	The Theory and Practice of Random Sampling	118-121
	Empirical Rules for Representative Sampling	121-126
	Selected References	126
VI	COMPLETE ENUMERATION OF A GOVERN- MENT CENSUS—THE TECHNIQUE OF FULL CANVASS	127-147
	Purpose and Scope of the Census	127-129
	Massachusetts State Census of 1915	130-132
	Preparation for Field Work	132-139
	Narrative	139-142
	Supervision of Field Work	143-147
	Selected References	147

PART III

SPECIAL PROBLEMS CONNECTED WITH FIELD WORK

CHAPTER	PAGE
VII	PURPOSE AND PREPARATION OF SCHEDULES FOR FIELD WORK 148-192
	The Schedule a Mechanical Aid to Ob- servation 149-156
	The Form of the Schedule 156-164
	Arrangement of Inquiries 164-167
	Content and Phrasing of Inquiries: Definition of Units 167-172
	Content and Phrasing of Inquiries: Phrasing of Questions 172-175
	Quantitative Expression in the Schedule 176-185
	Summary of Principles 186
	The Schedule as Determined by Practice in Tabulation 186-187
	The Questionnaire Method 187-191
	Selected References 191-192
VIII	EDITING, CLASSIFICATION, TRANSCRIBING, TABULATION AND INTERPRETATION OF FIELD WORK DATA 193-219
	Editing Schedules 194-197
	Classification 197-203
	Transcribing 203-205
	Tabulation and Interpretation of Data . 205-218
	Selected References on Statistics . . 218-219
INDEX 221-225