

Contents

Copyright Acknowledgments	vii
Preface	ix
Introduction	1

Part One: Mobilization

1 On the Origins of Social Movements Jo Freeman	7
2 Mobilizing the Disabled Roberta Ann Johnson	25
3 Sacrifice for the Cause: Group Processes, Recruitment, and Commitment in a Student Social Movement Eric L. Hirsch	47
4 Recruiting Intimates, Recruiting Strangers: Building the Contemporary Animal Rights Movement James M. Jasper	65

Part Two: Organization

5 The Structure of Social Movements: Environmental Activism and Its Opponents Luther P. Gerlach	85
6 The Consequences of Professionalization and Formalization in the Pro-Choice Movement Suzanne Staggenborg	99
7 AIDS, Anger, and Activism: ACT UP As a Social Movement Organization Abigail Halcli	135

Part Three: Consciousness

- 8 The Spirit Willing: Collective Identity and the Development of the Christian Right 153
John C. Green
- 9 Collective Identity in Social Movement Communities: Lesbian Feminist Mobilization 169
Verta Taylor and Nancy E. Whittier
- 10 The Social Construction of Subversive Evil: The Contemporary Anticult and Anti-Satanism Movements 195
David G. Bromley and Diana Gay Cutchin

Part Four: Strategy and Tactics

- 11 A Model for Analyzing the Strategic Options of Social Movement Organizations 221
Jo Freeman
- 12 The Strategic Determinants of a Countermovement: The Emergence and Impact of Operation Rescue Blockades 241
Victoria Johnson
- 13 Civil Disobedience and Protest Cycles 267
David S. Meyer
- 14 The Transformation of a Constituency into a Social Movement Revisited: Farmworker Organizing in California 277
J. Craig Jenkins

Part Five: Decline

- 15 The End of SDS and the Emergence of Weatherman: Demise through Success 303
Frederick D. Miller
- 16 The Decline of the Civil Rights Movement 325
Doug McAdam
- 17 The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee: Rise and Fall of a Redemptive Organization 349
Emily Stoper
- Index 365
- About the Contributors 377