

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Contributors	ix
List of Figures	xiii

Mapping the Field: Towards Reading Images in the (Post-)Yugoslav Context	1
Daniel Šuber and Slobodan Karamanić

PART I

ART AND THE OTHER SCENE

'Image Games': Political Imagology and the Mimicry of Power	29
Zoran Terzić
The Function of the Signifier 'Totalitarianism' in the Constitution of the 'East Art' Field	55
Miklavž Komelj
New Collectives: Art Networks and Cultural Policies in Post-Yugoslav Spaces	81
Sezgin Boynik
Spraying on Gallery Walls: Graffiti and the Art Field in Slovenia ...	107
Gregor Bulc

PART II

MOVING PICTURES: BEFORE AND AFTER DESTRUCTION

Changing Fates: The Role of the Hero in Yugoslav Cinema in the Early and Late Sixties	135
Davor Beganović

Futur Antérieur of Yugoslav Cinema, or, Why Emir Kusturica's Legacy is Worth Fighting for	149
Nebojša Jovanović

The Nationalistic Turn and the Visual Response in Macedonian Art and Cinema	171
Robert Alagjovovski

PART III

IMAGES IN RETROSPECT: CREATING MEMORY, NEGATING HISTORY

'Bosnian Girl': Nationalism and Innocence through Images of Women	195
Elissa Helms

Reinventing Kosovo: Newborn and the Young Europeans	223
Isabel Ströhle

Transformation of Memorial Sites in the Post-Yugoslav Context ...	251
Gal Kirn

Titostalgia. On the Post-Yugoslav Cognitive Map	283
Mitja Velikonja

Symbolic Landscape, Violence and the Normalization Process in Post-Milošević Serbia	313
Daniel Šuber and Slobodan Karamanić

Index	337
-------------	-----