

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

vii

1. Introduction: Sovereignty and the Study of States	i
Douglas Howland and Luise White
2. Sovereignty on the Isthmus: Federalism, U.S. Empire, and the Struggle for Panama during the California Gold Rush	19
Aims McGuinness
3. The Foreign and the Sovereign: Extraterritoriality in East Asia	35
Douglas Howland
4. Wilsonian Sovereignty in the Middle East: The King-Crane Commission Report of 1919	56
Leonard V. Smith
5. Colonial Sovereignty in Manchuria and Manchukuo	75
David Tucker
6. Alternatives to Empire: France and Africa after World War II	94
Frederick Cooper
7. The Ambiguities of Sovereignty: The United States and the Global Human Rights Cases of the 1940s and 1950s	124
Mark Philip Bradley
8. What Does It Take to Be a State? Sovereignty and Sanctions in Rhodesia, 1965–1980	148
Luise White
9. Legal Fictions after Empire	169
John D. Kelly and Martha Kaplan
10. Sovereignty after Socialism at Europe's New Borders	196
Keith Brown
11. Environmental Security, Spatial Preservation, and State Sovereignty in Central Africa	222
Kevin C. Dunn
12. The Paradox of Sovereignty in the Balkans	243
Aida A. Hozic
13. The Secret Lives of the "Sovereign": Rethinking Sovereignty as International Morality	261
Siba N. Grovogui

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

277

INDEX

281