

Contents

Introduction — 1

The Unification of Italy: A Topic and Its History — 1
Identity, Space and Region in Republican Italy — 10
Structure of This Work — 26

Terra Italia* — 29

The Extension of Roman Hegemony over Italy — 29
... muri vice tuebantur Italiam: The Alps as the Boundary of Italy — 35
Including Cisalpinga: History of a Complicated Province — 42
The Definition of Italy and Its Territorial Shape: Chronological Aspects — 58
Pictorial and Cartographic Representations of Italy — 68
Italy and the Road System — 70

Genesis of a Symbolic Shape — 96

Nuncupari: The Name as Symbol — 97
The Consanguineitas of the Italic Peoples — 111
The Myth of Autochthony — 149
The Construction of Italy's Centrality and the Laudes Italiae — 164

Italic Institutions — 175

Institutions and Mores — 175
The Italic Soil and Its Juridical and Sacral Meaning — 189
The Army — 203
Colonial Foundations — 217
Human Mobility and Migration in Republican Italy — 232
Coinage — 255
Epilogue: The Augustan Regions — 267

Italic Identity in the Roman Republic — 277

Romans and Italics — 278
“Roman” and “Italic” in the Provinces — 293
The Italic Desire for Citizenship in the 2nd Century BCE — 330
The Social War — 365
Refounding Italy: The Aftermath of the Social War and Its Construction in Roman Cultural Memory — 388

Conclusion — 395

The Birth of “Italic Identities” and the Process of “Italicization” — 395

VIII — Contents

Bibliography — 411

Index — 451