

List of Figures	vii
Acknowledgments	xi
PART I. Introduction
Introduction: Mimesis in Theory and in Cultural History Jeannette Mageo	3
PART II. Mimesis through Time
Chapter 1. Imitation as Relationality in Early Australian Encounters Francesca Merlan	29
Chapter 2. Transitional Images and Imaginaries: Dressing in Schemas in Colonial Samoa Jeannette Mageo	49
Chapter 3. Reel to Real: Mimesis, Playing Indian, and Touring with The Vanishing Race in New Zealand 1927 Sarina Pearson	79
PART III. Selling Mimesis: From Tourist Art to Trade Stores
Chapter 4. Traditional Tahitian Weddings for Tourists: An Entwinement of Mimetic Practices Joyce D. Hammond	111
Chapter 5. Of Dragons and Mermaids: The Art of Mimesis in the Trobriand Islands Sergio Jarillo de la Torre	138

Chapter 6. Capitalism Meets Its Match: Failed Mimesis of Market Economics among the Asabano of Papua New Guinea Roger Ivar Lohmann	164
---	-----

PART IV. Ritual Mimesis and Its Reconfigurations

Chapter 7. Mimesis, Ethnopsychology, and Transculturation: Identifications in Birthday Celebrations among Banabans in Fiji Elfriede Hermann	189
--	-----

Chapter 8. Mimesis and Reimagining Identity among Marshall Islanders Laurence Marshall Carucci	209
---	-----

Chapter 9. Anthropology, Christianity, and the Colonial Impasse: Rawa Mimesis, Millennialism, and Modernity in the Finisterre Mountains of Papua New Guinea Doug Dalton	230
---	-----

PART V. Afterword

“I Lot Magic Sticks 6 Bundles.” Mimetic Technologies: Their Intimacies and Intersecting Histories Joshua A. Bell	257
---	-----

Index	274
-------	-----