

Contents

Notes on Contributors IX

Introduction 1

PART 1

Constituting Exile

Estonian Historians in Exile: Organisation and Publication 13

Olavi Arens

Transnational Contacts and Cross-Fertilization among Baltic Historians in Exile, 1968–1991 30

Toivo Raun

Baltic Historiography in West German Exile 46

Jörg Hackmann

Remaining Loyal: Latvian Historians in Exile 1945–1991 68

Andrejs Plakans

Ukrainian Historical Writing in North America during the Cold War: Striving for “Normalcy” 93

Volodymyr Kravchenko

Belarusian Historians in Exile: New Circumstances, Old Problems 120

Oleg Łatyszonek

Fr. Prof. Walerian Meysztowicz and the Polish Historical Institute in Rome 131

Miroław A. Supruniuk

Polish Exile Historians at the International Historical Congresses 156

Maria Zadencka

To Be a Polish Historian in Exile: Semantic and Methodological Remarks 190

Rafał Stobiecki

PART 2

Transfer of Knowledge

Homeland Livland and "Exile" in the German Fatherland: Reinhard
Wittram (1902–1973) and his Attitudes towards Baltic History,
1925–1964 205

Gert von Pistohtkors

How To Become A Perfect Danish-Estonian Historian: Homage to Vello
Helk 236

Jaan Undusk

Polish Historiography in Exile: On Selected Works and Ideas of Oskar
Halecki, Henryk Paszkiewicz and Marian Kukiel 249

Miroslaw Filipowicz

The Shape of Europe in the Works of Oskar Halecki, Józef Mackiewicz, and Marian Kukiel 263

Maria Zadencka

Polish Exile Periodicals as a Dialogue Forum: Teki Historyczne, *Polish
Review*, Zeszyty Historyczne 282

Rafał Stobiecki

PART 3

New Styles of Thought

Generations in Baltic German Historical Writing, 1919–2009 297

Gert von Pistohtkors

History Writing in Exile and in the Homeland after World War II: Some Comparative Aspects 322

Jaan Undusk

In Whose Name is the Story Told? The Émigré Critique of Method in the Historiography of the Polish People's Republic 343

Artur Mękowski

The Figure of “Antemurale” in the Historiography at Home and in Exile    360

Andreas Lawaty

A “Polish Connection” in American Sovietology Or the Old Homeland Enmities in the New Host Country Humanities    375

Andrzej Nowak

The Idea of Latvian National History in Exile: Continuity and Discontinuity
*Iveta Leitāne    396

Name Index    425