

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements	IX
Table of International Cases	XII
Table of Bangladesh Cases	XXI
Table of Instruments and Legislation	XXV
Abbreviations	XXVIII

1	Transitional Justice in Bangladesh: A Background Profile	1
2	The Legal Regime of the Trial: The International Crimes Tribunals Act 1973	28
3	The Substantive Law of the ICT Jurisdiction	51
4	Crimes Against Humanity	69
5	Genocide and Crimes Against Peace	94
6	War Crimes and Violations of International Humanitarian Law	116
7	Crimes of Rape and Sexual Violence in Armed Conflicts	149
8	Accessory Crimes: Complicity, Aiding, Abetting, and Incitement/ Instigation	184
9	The Liability Regime: Modes of Criminal Responsibility	203
10	The Procedural Rules of the ICT Trials	238
11	Prosecutorial Strategies in Charge Framing and Proving Before the ICTs	269
12	Defence Responses to Rebut Charges Before the ICTs	297
13	The Trial, Appeal, and Review Judgments: Immunities, Convictions, and Sentencing	329
14	Procedural Standard and Due Process in the ICT Trials	359

15	Complementarity between International and National Criminal Justice: The ICT Trials in Context	393
16	Transitional Justice in Bangladesh: Significance, Legacy, and Contribution	417
	Appendix – 1 The International Crimes (Tribunals) Act, 1973 (Original Act)	433
	Appendix – 2 The International Crimes (Tribunals) Act, 1973 (Act No. XIX of 1973) as Amended up to February 2013	446
	Appendix – 3 International Crimes Tribunal Rules of Procedure, 2010	460
	Bibliography	477
	Index	503