

Contents

Contents	5
About the editors	7
List of contributors	9
Preface: Relaunching the Publications of the Netherlands Institute at Athens Series	11
 Introduction	 13
Tamara M. Dijkstra, Inger N.I. Kuin, Muriel Moser, and David Weidgenannt
 Part I: Building Remembrance
 Roman Greece and the ‘Mnemonic Turn’. Some Critical Remarks	 21
Dimitris Grigoropoulos, Valentina Di Napoli, Vasilis Evangelidis, Francesco Camia, Dylan Rogers and Stavros Vlizos
 Strategies of Remembering in the Creation of a Colonial Society in Patras	 37
Tamara M. Dijkstra
 Contending with the Past in Roman Corinth: The Julian Basilica	 49
Catherine de Grazia Vanderpool and Paul D. Scotton
 Part II: Competing with the Past
 Heritage Societies? Private Associations in Roman Greece	 71
Benedikt Eckhardt
 Performing the Past: Salamis, Naval Contests and the Athenian Ephebeia	 83
Zahra Newby

Greek Panhellenic Agones in a Roman Colony: Corinth and the Return of the Isthmian Games	97
Lavinia del Basso

Part III: Honoring Tradition

Heroes of Their Times. Intra-Mural Burials in the Urban Memorial Landscapes of the Roman Peloponnese	111
Johannes Fouquet

Public Statues as a Strategy of Remembering in Early Imperial Messene	125
Christopher Dickenson

Shortages, Remembering and the Construction of Time: Aspects of Greek Honorific Culture (2nd century BC – 1st century AD)	143
David Weidgenannt

Part IV: History in Athens

Anchoring Political Change in Post-Sullan Athens	157
Inger N.I. Kuin

Reused Statues for Roman Friends: The Past as a Political Resource in Roman Athens	169
Muriel Moser

Strategies of Remembering in Greece under Rome: Some Conclusions	183
Inger N.I. Kuin and Muriel Moser

Index	187
--------------	------------