

CONTENTS

Foreword ix

Acknowledgments xiii

Contributors xix

Introduction 1

PART ONE: PRELUDE: AFGHANISTAN BETWEEN TWO WARS, 1989–2001

Preface to Part One: Helping Afghanistan 25

1. Afghanistan in the International System 27

2. The Political Economy of War and Peace in Afghanistan 52

3. Arab Islamists in Afghanistan 73

PART TWO: NATION BUILDING LITE

Preface to Part Two: Afghans Can Be Our Allies 99

4. A Blueprint for Afghanistan 101

5. The Politics of Center-Periphery Relations in Afghanistan 109
With Helena Malikyar

6. Transitional Justice and Human Rights in Afghanistan 133

7. Crafting a Constitution for Afghanistan 149

8. The Political Context of Public Administration Reform
in Afghanistan 164
9. Peace Building, State Building: Constructing Sovereignty
for Security 180
10. The Politics of Security in Postconflict State Building 192
11. Regional Issues in the Reconstruction of Afghanistan 213
With Andrea Armstrong
12. Afghanistan's Uncertain Transition from Turmoil to Normalcy 226
13. Afghanistan 2005 and Beyond: Prospects for Improved
Stability Reference Document 256
With Humayun Hamidzada and Abby Stoddard

PART THREE: BACK TO WAR

- Preface to Part Three: The Death of an Afghan Optimist 339
14. Saving Afghanistan 343
15. Resolving the Pakistan-Afghanistan Stalemate 360
With Abubakar Siddique
16. Counternarcotics to Stabilize Afghanistan: The False Promise of Crop Eradication 386
With Jake Sherman
17. Afghan Dilemmas: Defining Commitments 423
18. The Transformation of the Afghan State 434
19. From Great Game to Grand Bargain: Ending Chaos in Afghanistan and Pakistan 442
With Ahmed Rashid
20. The Way Forward in Afghanistan: End the War on Terror 454
- Epilogue: A Tribe Apart: Afghan Elites Face a Corrosive Past 458

Works Cited 477

Index 487