

Contents

Preface	page ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Note on Texts, Translations, and Abbreviations	xiv
Introduction	1
Part I Kant's Concept of Law	9
1 What Is, for Kant, a Law of Nature?	11
2 Kant on Transcendental Laws	30
Part II The Laws of Mechanics	49
3 The System of Principles	51
4 The Argumentative Structure of Kant's Metaphysical Foundations of Natural Science	69
5 The Laws of Motion from Newton to Kant	89
6 Kant's Justification of the Laws of Mechanics	118
Part III Teleological Laws	147
7 The Antinomy of Teleological Judgment	149
8 Nature in General as a System of Ends	174
Part IV Laws as Regulative Principles	189
9 Kant on Rational Cosmology	191
10 Kant on Infima Species	212

Part V The Moral Law	225
11 Autonomy and the Legislation of Laws in the Prolegomena	227
12 Kant on the Natural, Moral, Human, and Divine Orders	247
Conclusion	268
Bibliography	284
Index	293