

Contents

Borders and border experiences Christian Wille and Birte Nienaber	7
The Europe without borders discourse and splitting European identities Carsten Yndigegn	17
 Border Experiences: Everyday Life and Working Life
Cross-border links at the boundaries of the European Union: an ethnography of mobility, work, and citizenship in uncertain times Ignacy Józwiak	41
Passports and mobility at Spain's border with France, 1966–1978 Ariela House	61
The economic impact of cross-border work on the municipalities of residence: an example at the French–Luxembourgish border Isabelle Pigeron-Piroth and Rachid Belkacem	85
Cross-border everyday lives on the Luxembourg border? An empirical approach: the example of cross-border commuters and residential migrants Christian Wille and Ursula Roos	101
Moving from nation into region. Experiences and memories of cross-border dwelling in the Greater Region SaarLorLux Elisabeth Boesen	127
Epistemic border struggles: exposing, legitimizing, and diversifying border knowledge at a security conference Dominik Gerst	143

Border Experiences: Communication and Languages

Digital media practices as digital border experiences among French cross-border commuters in Luxembourg Corinne Martin	169
Betweenness and the emergence of order Florian Dost, Konstanze Jungbluth, Nicole Richter	193
Researching forced migrants' trajectories: encounters with multilingualism Erika Kalocsányiová	217
Border experiences along the Portugal/Spain border: a contribution from language documentation Xosé-Afonso Álvarez Pérez	237