

Contents

List of Tables	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Gender, Violence, Refugees: An Introduction Susanne Buckley-Zistel and Ulrike Krause	1
 Part I: Conceptualizing Gender, Violence, Refugees
1. UNHCR Policy on Refugee Women: A 25-Year Retrospective Susan F. Martin	21
2. Victims of Chaos and Subaltern Sexualities? Some Reflections on Common Assumptions about Displacement and the Prevalence of Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Simon Turner	44
3. Refugees, Global Governance and the Local Politics of Violence against Women Elisabeth Olivius	58
4. ‘Solidarity’ and ‘Gender Equality’ as a Discourse of Violence in Sweden: Exclusion of Refugees by the Decent Citizen Emma Mc Cluskey	78
5. Spatializing Inequalities: The Situation of Women in Refugee Centres in Germany Melanie Hartmann	102
6. ‘Faithing’ Gender and Responses to Violence in Refugee Communities: Insights from the Sahrawi Refugee Camps and the Democratic Republic of Congo Elena Fiddian-Qasmiyeh, Chloé Lewis and Georgia Cole	127

7.	Formidable Intersections: Forced Migration, Gender and Livelihoods Dale Buscher	152
----	---	-----

Part II: Experiencing Gender, Violence, Refuge

8.	Escaping Conflicts and Being Safe? Post-conflict Refugee Camps and the Continuum of Violence Ulrike Krause	173
9.	Lost Boys, Invisible Girls: Children, Gendered Violence and Wartime Displacement in South Sudan Marisa O. Ensor	197
10.	Military Recruitment of Sudanese Refugee Men in Uganda: A Tale of National Patronage and International Failure Maja Janmyr	219
11.	Gender, Violence and Deportation: Angola's Forced Return of Congolese Migrant Workers Alexander Betts	239
12.	The Romance of Return: Post-exile Lives and Interpersonal Violence over Land in Burundi Barbra Lukunka	264
	Index	283