

Contents

Foreword and Synopsis	xi
Acknowledgments	xix
List of Abbreviations and Acronyms	xxi
Notes on Spellings, Usages, and Other Conventions	xxiii

Chapter One: The Fourth World War	1
I. Antecedents to the Global Development War	2
A. World War I	2
1. Self-Determination	2
2. Presumptions Upended	3
B. World War II	4
1. Global Economic Issues Break the Political Surface	4
2. Human Rights Rumblings	5
3. International Law and International Organizations	6
C. The Cold War	7
1. A Bold Experiment	8
2. Economic Assistance and Ideological Influence	9
3. A Giant with Nightmares	10
II. The Nature of the Global Development War	12
A. Conflicting Development Ideologies	13
1. Development	13
2. Human Development	15
3. Liberal or Orthodox?	16
4. Intelligent or Ill-Conceived?	23
5. Participatory or Authoritarian?	25
6. Multilateral, Bilateral, or Regional?	26
7. Sustainable or Improvident?	27
8. Summary	28
B. Why the War Matters	29
1. Despair, Danger, and Development	29
2. Terrorism: Predictable Consequence or Parallel Conflict?	42
C. The Machinery and Theaters of War	44
1. The Political and Institutional Topography	44
2. The Global Economic Organizations	46

Chapter Two: A Cacophony of Criticisms—Attacking the Global Economic Organizations	49
I. A World of Problems	50

A.	Growing Economic Distress.	50
B.	Globalization as Culprit?	52
II.	Cataloguing the Criticisms.	54
A.	Criticisms by Types of GEOs.	54
1.	The Logic of Disaggregation.	54
2.	The Twenty-Three Criticisms.	54
B.	The Eight Clusters of Complaints.	58
Appendix to Chapter Two: Representative Survey of Literature Criticizing the GEOs.		63
Chapter Three: What Are the Global Economic Organizations?		91
I.	Historical Survey.	92
A.	Highlights in the GEO Timeline.	93
B.	The Inter-War Period and Bretton Woods.	96
1.	Before 1944.	96
2.	Three Proposed Solutions.	98
C.	The First Twenty-Five Years: From 1945 to 1970.	100
D.	The Second Twenty-Five Years: From 1970 to the mid-1990s.	102
1.	Reacting to Change.	102
2.	Whither the Nation-State?	102
E.	The Contemporary World of the GEOs.	104
II.	The IMF in a Nutshell.	105
A.	The Grand Design and Its Collapse.	105
1.	Establishment of the IMF and the Par Value System.	105
2.	Collapse of the Par Value System and a Redirected IMF.	106
B.	IMF Financing and Resources.	107
1.	IMF Financing Facilities.	107
2.	IMF Conditionality.	110
3.	IMF Resources for Lending.	111
C.	Other IMF Operations.	112
1.	Surveillance.	112
2.	Technical Assistance.	112
3.	Special Policy Endorsement.	113
D.	Governance and Other Institutional Matters.	113
1.	IMF Structure and the Weighted Voting System.	113
2.	Membership; Obligations; Privileges and Immunities.	114
3.	Funding the IMF's Operational Expenses.	115
4.	Debt Relief.	116
III.	The World Bank and the Regional MDBs in a Nutshell.	117
A.	MDB Lending Operations.	118

1. Project Financing	118
2. Policy-Based Lending	119
3. Lending Terms	120
4. Procurement	120
B. Technical Assistance and Other Operations	121
C. Resources and Other Financial Matters	123
1. More on the Distinction Between Hard Loans and Soft Loans	123
2. MDB Capitalization, Borrowings, and Replenishments	124
D. Membership and Institutional Matters	127
1. Membership in the MDBs	127
2. Structure of and Decision Making in the MDBs	129
E. Other Aspects of MDBs and Their Operations	131
1. Policies and Initiatives	131
2. The Generational Character of the MDBs	131
3. Debt Relief	134
IV. The WTO in a Nutshell	134
A. The GATT 1947	135
1. Aims and Principles	135
2. Exceptions to GATT Principles	138
B. Negotiating Rounds and Other Developments	141
1. Tokyo, Uruguay, and Doha	141
2. The Uruguay Round Agreements	142
C. Institutional and Structural Matters	144
1. The Nature of the WTO and the WTO Charter	144
2. WTO Membership and Structure	145
3. Decision Making and Dispute Settlement	146

Appendix to Chapter Three: Voting Power of IMF Member Countries and Constituencies	149
---	-----

Chapter Four: Battles over the GEOs' Policies and Operations. 167

I. Bad Policies, Projects, and Performance	168
A. The Ideology of Trade Liberalization	168
B. The "Washington Consensus", Moral Hazard, the IMF, and the MDBs	175
1. The Criticisms	175
2. Improvement or Deterioration?	177
3. Causation	178
4. Moral Hazard?	179
5. Changed Prescriptions	180
6. Summing up on IMF Policy Prescriptions	182
C. Bad Projects, Priorities, and Performance by the MDBs	183

1. Bad MDB Policies and Projects?	184
2. Wrong Form of Assistance?	188
3. MDB Management and Staffing	190
II. Distributional and Social Injustice	193
A. Winners and Losers from WTO-Led Free Trade	193
1. Focusing on the National Level	194
2. Focusing on the Global Level	196
B. Austerity Measures, the IMF, and Social Ruin	200
C. Human Rights and the MDBs	203
III- Environmental Degradation	205
A. The MDBs and the Environment	206
B. Racing to the Bottom	208
IV. Encroachments on Sovereignty	213
A. WTO Prohibitions on Social Protectionism	213
B. IMF and MDB Conditionality	218
V. Summary: Evaluating the Criticisms of GEO Policies and Operations	221

Chapter Five: Battles over the GEOs' Character, Control, and Reach	227
I. Secrecy and Opaqueness	227
A. The Illumination of the IMF	228
B. The MDBs and the Momentum Toward Openness	230
C. The WTO—A Different Momentum Toward Openness	231
II. The Democracy Deficit	232
A. The IMF: Voting, Structure, Authority, and Leadership	233
B. The MDBs: More of the Same, But Worse	242
C. The WTO and Partial Unaccountability	248
1. Democracy in the WTO?	248
2. The WTO's Allegiance to Its Members	249
3. Genuine Unaccountability Problems	250
4. Strengthening Weak National Governments	252
III. Mission Creep of the MDBs and the IMF	255
A. Mission Creep and the Three Generations of MDBs	256
1. Old Dogs and New Tricks	256
2. Legality and Ideology	258
B. IMF Mission Creep?	263
W. Asymmetry in Obligations (IMF and the MDBs)	265
A. Asymmetry in IMF Obligations	266
B. Asymmetry in MDB Obligations	269
V. Summary: Evaluating the Criticisms of GEO Character, Control, and Reach	270

Chapter Six: The Current Front in the Global Development War— How (and Whether) to Reform the GEOs?	275
I. Reforming the MDBs	276
A. Transparency	277
B. Participation	278
C. Legality	279
D. Competence	280
E. Accountability	282
1. Accountability of Member Countries	282
2. Accountability of the MDBs	283
F. Substantive Norms and Standards	285
G. Charter Amendments	287
II. Reforming the IMF	288
A. Structural and Operational Changes in the IMF	290
B. Enhancing Competence in National Governance	295
III. Reforming the WTO	301
A. Distributional Justice and Distributional Generosity	302
B. Environmental and Human Rights Protections	307
C. Transparency	310
D. Accountability	310
E. Development Assistance	312
IV. Concluding Observations	313
A. Collective Assessment of the GEOs	313
B. The Perils of Bilateralism	315
1. Chinese Bilateral Development Financing	315
2. US Bilateral Trade Negotiations	318
C. The Role of the USA and the Future of the GEOs	320
 Appendix to Chapter Six—Draft Protocol to the AsDB Charter	 323
 About the Author	 329
Selected Bibliography	331
Index	339