

| | |
|-----------------|-------|
| Acknowledgement | xi |
| Abbreviations | xiii |
| Preface | xv |
| Introduction | xviii |

Part I

HUMANITARIAN INTERVENTION BY THE POWERS: A HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

| | |
|---|----|
| 1. Islamic Sacred Law as a Matrix of Ottoman Legal Order and Nationality Conflicts | 3 |
| 2. Humanitarian Intervention as a Response to Nationality Conflicts in the Balkans | 7 |
| Humanitarian Intervention and Ottoman Turkish Dominion | |
| Serb Insurrection and Russian Intervention | |
| The Greek War of Independence and European Intervention | |
| The Crimean War: A New Impetus to Humanitarian Intervention | |
| The 1856 Reform Act and Its Denunciation by Militant Islamists | |
| 3. Escalation of the Conflicts and Ottoman Palliatives. The Origins of the Eastern Question Foreshadowing the Armenian Question | 21 |
| Europe's Implausible Legal-Political Embrace of Theocratic Turkey | |
| The Massacre of Christian Maronites and a New Protocol for the Protection of the Christians | |
| The Balkan Insurrections. The Emergence Among Orthodox Slavs of a New Breed of Muslim Overlords | |
| The Midhat Constitution | |

- From the London Protocol to the Berlin Treaty*
The Lethal Disjunctiveness of Public Law and Common
Law in Ottoman Turkey
The Provocative Origin of the Armenian Question. A French
Document
From Desperation to Desperate Acts: The Advent of Armenian Revolutionaries

Part II

THE ORIGINS OF THE ARMENIAN QUESTION AND THE TURKO-ARMENIAN CONFLICT

4. The Ill-Fated Internationalization of a Domestic Nationality Conflict 43
The Cleavage Between Armenian and Turkish Revolutionaries Conjointly Seeking the Overthrow of Abdul Hamit
The Futility of Armenian Efforts for Administrative Remedies
5. The Interactive Dynamics of the Eastern and Armenian Questions 49
The Common Denominator Undergirding Both Questions
Armeno-Macedonian Cooperation
Greece, Crete and Zeitoun
Convergence in Origin But Divergence in Outcome

Part III

THE DYSFUNCTIONS OF HUMANITARIAN INTERVENTION IN THE RISE AND TREATMENT OF THE ARMENIAN QUESTION

6. Manipulative Diplomacy Supplanting the Ideals of Humanitarian Intervention 61
The Armenian Question as a Pawn in British Party Politics.
The Sway of a Moral Dilemma
The Austrian Policy of Acquiescence to the Massacres
The Role-Reversal of Russia: The Crux of the Armenian Disaster
France's Adhesion to Russia and the Tension Between Humanitarianism and Opportunism in French Foreign Policy
The Saga of a Dissident French Ambassador
The German Policy of Rejecting Both Humanitarianism and Intervention

7. The Impotence of Discordant Diplomacy: The Disconnective Vulnerabilities of the Armenians 104
- Factors Handicapping the Armenian Quest for Relief*
Abortive Treaty Engagements
The Factor of Hedging Through Diplomatic Semantics

Part IV

THE INAUGURATION OF A PROTO-GENOCIDAL POLICY

8. The Era of the Abdul Hamit Massacres 113
- The Sassoun Uprising*
The Sterility of the European Response to the
Sassoun Massacre
The Hunchakist Demonstration: The Sequela to the
Sassoun Massacre
The Formative Elements of a Subculture of Massacre
Against the Armenians
The 1895–96 Zeitoun Uprising
The Conflagration of Van
The Capture of Bank Ottoman
The Unleashing by the Authorities of the Predesigned
Massacres
A Special Case of Collective Punishment Through
Mass Murder
The Religious Dimensions of the Massacres
The Demography of the Empire-Wide Massacres and of Destruction: The Nature and Sweep of Armenian Losses
The Issue of Cultural and Subcultural Components of Massacre Revisited
Massacre as an Instrument of a Radical Policy

9. The Portentousness of the Abdul Hamit Era Massacres 172

Part V

THE WARS AND MASSACRES OF THE NEW YOUNG
TURK REGIME AND THE DEMISE OF HUMANITARIAN INTERVENTIONISM

10. The 1909 Twin Adana Massacres 179
- The Hidden Agenda of the Young Turks Seizing Power*
The Reenactment of Massacres as Rehearsal for the Genocide

| | |
|--|------------|
| 11. The Eviction of the Turks from the Balkan Peninsula: A New Sense of Peril for Anatolia | 185 |
| Turkish Military Defeats in the 1912 Balkan War The Dissolution of the Eastern Question into the Armenian Question | |
| Part VI | |
| THE INITIATION AND CONSUMMATION OF THE GENOCIDE UNDER COVER OF THE FIRST WORLD WAR | |
| 12. The Legal-Political Context of the Initiation | 203 |
| The Alliance with Imperial Germany and the Opportunity Factor External War as a Crucible for Targeting the "Internal Foe" | |
| 13. International Law as a Crucible of Legal Liabilities | 212 |
| The Annulment of the Treaties The Allies' Warning and the Introduction of the Principle of "Crimes Against Humanity" | |
| 14. The Implementation of the Genocide | 219 |
| Mobilization and Deportation Expropriation and Confiscation of Goods and Assets The Genocidal Killings | |
| 15. The Disguises of the Law of Deportation and Ancillary Acts | 235 |
| Ultimate Responsibility for the Deportation The Special Organization (Teşkilâtı Mahsusa) Efforts to Disguise Responsibility and Intent: A Challenge for Punishment | |
| 16. The Issue of German Complicity | 248 |
| The Revival of the Armenian Question and the New Turko-German Partnership The Inroads of the German Military Mission to Turkey The Bearings of the German Ideological Perspectives The Complicity of the Military. The Order for the "Deportations" The Political Indicators of Complicity An Ambassador and a Marine Attaché: The Issue of Paramountcy in Complicity Turkish Assertions on German Complicity Incidents of Concealment and Disclosure The Anti-Russian Ideology in the Turko-German Partner- ship and Its Anti-Armenian Repercussions German Political Economists and the Armenian Genocide | |

- The Views of German Experts of Criminal and International Law on German Complicity as a By-Product of Militarism*
The Significance of Emperor William II's Secret Activities
A Final Commentary on the Issue of German Complicity

Part VII

THE QUEST FOR JUSTICE IN THE AFTERMATH OF TURKISH MILITARY DEFEAT

- 17. Allied Attempts at Retributive Justice 303
The Judicial Arm of the Paris Peace Conference
The Legal Gropings of the British
The Ultimate Suspension of Prosecution
A Commentary on the Abortiveness of Allied Justice
- 18. The Recourse to the Machinery of Turkish Justice 317
Pretrial Inquiries and Investigations
The Formation of the Court Martial
The Initiation of the Proceedings
The Key Indictment
The Jurisdictional Challenge by the Defense: The Constitutional Argument
The Key Verdict
Ancillary Verdicts and the End of the Proceedings
Political Impediments to the Domestic Trials

Part VIII

THE PUSH BEYOND DOMESTIC GENOCIDE. THE TARGETING OF THE RUSSIAN ARMENIANS

- 19. The Ittihadist Thrust Against Russian Armenia 347
German Military Testimony
Other Accounts
Austrian Testimony
The Political Abetment of the Military
- 20. The Kemalist Thrust Against Russian Armenia 356
Ankara's Secret Order to "Physically Annihilate Armenia"
The Reengagement of the Old Ittihadist Chieftains
The Proddings of the Top Ittihadist Leaders
The Cooperation of the Sultan's Government
Karabekir. The Foe of Armenia and the Patron of Azerbaijan
*The Reactivation of the Leadership of the Wartime
Special Organization*
The Return of the Special Organization Field Officers

*Part IXA REVIEW OF THE ARMENIAN GENOCIDE IN A COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE

| | |
|---|------------|
| 21. The Saliency of Some of the Determinants of the Armenian Genocide | 377 |
| A Note on the Dynamics of Impunity | |
| 22. Parallel Problems in the Post-War Prosecution of World War I German War Criminals | 390 |
| 23. The Armenian Genocide in Relation to the Holocaust and the Nuremberg Trials | 394 |
| The Problem of the Vulnerability of the Jews and Armenians as Potential Targets of Victimization | |
| Considerations on the Armenian Genocide Seen as a Precedent and a Precursor of the Holocaust | |
| The Nuremberg Crucible | |
| Conclusion | 420 |
| Appendix | 424 |
| The Pool of Potential Sources in Nazi Germany Regarding the Facts of the Armenian Genocide | |
| Bibliography | 428 |
| Subject Index | 447 |
| Names Index | 450 |