

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	i
 Part I. Re-imagining the Soviet World after Stalin, 1953–1956
1. 1953: “The Most Painful Year”	21
2. Prisoners and the Art of Petitioning, 1953–1956	50
3. Heroes, Enemies, and the Secret Speech	79
 Part II. Stalin’s Outcasts Return: Moral Panic and the Cult of Criminality
4. Returnees, Crime, and the Gulag Subculture	109
5. The Redemptive Mission	133
6. A Return to Weeding	156
 Part III. A Fragile Solution? From the Twenty-Second Party Congress to Khrushchev’s Ouster
7. 1961: Clearing a Path to the Future	189
8. Literary Hooligans and Parasites	215
Conclusion	237
Bibliography	241
Index	257