

Contents

Preface VII

List of Table and Figures XV

List of Contributors XIX

PART 1

The Representation of Urban Disasters in a Long-Term Perspective

- 1 Transient Cities: Representations of Urban Destructions in European Iconography in the Fourteenth to Seventeenth Centuries 3

Marco Folin

- 2 When Towns Collapse: Images of Earthquakes, Floods, and Eruptions in Italy in the Fifteenth to Nineteenth Centuries 33

Emanuela Guidoboni

PART 2

Images of Ruination and Hopes for Redemption

- 3 Urban Responses to Disaster in Renaissance Italy: Images and Rituals 59

Fabrizio Nevola

- 4 In the Beginning, There was Fire: Vitruvius and the Origin of the City 75

Olga Medvedkova

- 5 "Cities of Fire": Iconographic Fortune, Taste and Circulation of Fire Paintings between Flanders and Italy in the early Sixteenth Century 100

Isabella di Lenardo

- 6 The Destruction of the City: A Pledge of Salvation? Some Reflections about Monsù Desiderio and the Genre of "Destruction Painting" 116

Philippe Malgouyres

PART 3

Urban Disasters on Display: Art, Documentation, Remembrance

- 7 Catastrophe and Photography as a "Double Reversal": The 1908 Messina and Reggio Earthquake and the Album of the Italian Photographic Society 137

Tiziana Serena

- 8 Meidner's Urban Iconography: Optical Destruction and Visual Apocalypse 164

Sophie Goetzmann

- 9 Destruction and Construction in Contemporary Art. Three Cases in Twentieth-Century Italy (Gibellina 1968, Friuli 1976, Napoli 1980) 179

Alessandro Del Puppo

Index of Names 193

Index of Places 203