

Inhalt

Acknowledgments.....	IX
I Introduction	1
1 The Recent Urban, German and Austria-Hungarian Historiography.....	2
2 City-Text	7
3 New Cities of the Nineteenth Century	9
4 Austria-Hungary and the German Empire	11
5 Comparisons	15
6 Case Studies	19
6.1 Posen (Poznań).....	19
6.2 Beuthen (Bytom) in Upper Silesia	20
6.3 Biala (Biała)	22
6.4 Cracow (Krakau/Kraków)	25
7 Primary Sources	27
8 Language.....	27
9 Research Hypotheses and Chapter Outline.....	28
II Imagining a City: A Historical Perspective on Symbolic Politics.....	31
1 Embodiment of Grand Ideas	32
2 Nationalisation of Space	36
3 A Nation and a State	38
4 Collective Memories.....	42
5 Conclusions: Symbolic Politics in the Nineteenth-Century Cities	46
III Street Names	49
1 Street Naming as a Tool of Symbolic Politics	50
1.1 Historicising Street Naming	51
1.2 The Double Function of Street Names	52
1.3 Street Naming in Prussia and Austria-Hungary	53
2 The Overarching Narrative of a City-Text.....	54
2.1 The Major Streets	55
2.2 Narration of the Squares.....	56
2.3 Street Names as an Independent Symbolic Device	61
3 (In)stability of a Historical Centre	64

4	Reading the City-Text Politically.....	69
4.1	Social Sensitivity of a City-Text.....	69
4.2	The Dominant Nationality of a City-Text	71
4.3	National Minorities on the Margins of a City-Text.....	72
5	Time, Space and Actors of a City-Text.....	77
5.1	Freezing the Moment.....	77
5.2	Geography of a City-Text.....	79
6	Conclusions: Street Naming and Symbolic Politics	81
IV	Monuments.....	85
1	Symbolic Topographies.....	87
1.1	Hotspot of Symbolic Geography: Posen	88
1.2	Pursuit of Recognition: Beuthen	95
1.3	All Roads Lead to the Main Square: Cracow	101
1.4	Intimacy of the Parks.....	106
1.5	Uneven Symbolic Density of Space.....	112
2	Time and Space in Symbolic Realms.....	113
2.1	Remembering Those Who Are not Forgotten.....	114
2.2	Mapping the City.....	116
2.3	Prussian, German or ... Posen?.....	119
2.4	Beuthen in the German Empire.....	120
3	The Meaning of Silence: Biala	121
4	Conclusions.....	123
V	Public Buildings.....	127
1	Symbolic Politics in Architecture	128
1.1	Deconstruction of Symbolic Architecture	129
1.2	Is the Equilateral Arch German by Nature? A Problem of a National Style.....	130
2	State.....	133
2.1	Royal Residential Castle in Posen (1910).....	133
2.2	Wawel Castle in Cracow (1905-1914)	137
2.3	Collegium Novum in Cracow (1887).....	141
3	Local Identity	144
3.1	Two City Halls of Posen (1895/1913).....	144
3.2	The City Hall in Biala (1897).....	147
3.3	The City Catholic School in Beuthen (1903).....	148
4	Nationality.....	149
4.1	The City Theatre in Posen (1910)	150
4.2	The City Theatre in Cracow (1893).....	152
4.3	The School in Biala (1898)	155
5	Conclusions.....	157

VI	Reception of Symbolic Landscapes	159
1	Acceptance	160
1.1	Participation in a National Community through Financial Support.....	160
1.2	Appropriation of Symbols	164
1.3	We the People	165
1.4	The Power of Names	168
2	Rejection	172
2.1	Defence of National Principles.....	172
2.2	Chilling Silence	174
3	The Middle Ground.....	175
3.1	Practical Implications	176
3.2	Social Relevance of Symbols	178
4	Conclusions: Class, Practicalities of 'Everyday' and Hegemonic Discourse.....	180
VII	Conclusions: Saturation of a Symbolic Landscape – Nationality, Social Class and Political Power	183
1	Nationalisation of Space	184
2	Practice of Symbolic Politics	187
3	Actors.....	189
4	Beyond a Symbolic Urban Landscape.....	193
VIII	Zusammenfassung.....	197
IX	Bibliography	199
1	Primary Sources	199
1.1	Archival Documents.....	199
1.2	Printed Sources	200
1.3	Newspapers and Journals	204
1.4	Maps	205
2	Secondary Sources	205
2.1	Literature	205
3.3	Films	224
X	List of Figures	225
XI	Index.....	227
1	Name Index.....	227
2	Place Index.....	228