

Table of Contents

Section I Constitutional Law

Of Judicial Justice	11
---------------------	----

Un Jong Pak

The Constitution Conformant Interpretation – Norm Compatibilisation Through Harmonisation by Way of Interpretation	25
--	----

Matthias Jestaedt

Section II Legal Theory

Legal Construction between Legislation and Interpretation	41
---	----

Ralf Poscher

Section III Private Law

Tension and Conflict between Laws Made by a Judge and Legislations by the National Assembly in Private Law	69
---	----

Kye Joung Lee

Judge-made Law beyond the German Civil Code	89
---	----

Frank L. Schäfer

The Decision of the Korean Supreme Court on the Contingent Fee Agreement in Criminal Cases – General Clause, Judicial Activism, and Prospective Overruling	109
--	-----

Jinsu Yune

The Relationship between the Legislature and the Judiciary in Developing General Principles of Private International Law 137
Jan von Hein

Section IV Criminal Law

The Influence of the Judiciary on the Criminal Legislation and Its Impact on the Transformation of Models:
An Analysis of the Korean Experience 169
Sang Won Lee

Criminal Law, Security and Criminal Policies:
German and Korean Perspectives 195
Hans-Jörg Albrecht

Section V Commercial Law

Unintended Effect of Legislation:
Valuation of listed shares when private benefits of control are expected 217
Ok-Rial Song

Regulation of Internet Information Intermediaries:
Personality Rights and Data Protection Law 233
Boris Paal

The Legislator's Fear of the CJEU in the Unified Patent System 251
Maximilian Haedicke

Section VI Administrative Law

Recent Issues and Trends of Environmental Law and Policy in Korea – Legislature vs. Judiciary 263
Seongwook Heo

A Dynamic between the Legislature and the Judiciary in Korean Health Law: exemplified by End-of-Life Decision-making and Health Care Financing Issues	273
Dongjin Lee
List of Contributors	295