

Contents

List of figures	x
List of tables	xi
List of contributors	xii
Acknowledgements	xx
 Introduction	 1
 1. Reading mass violence	 3
NAVRAS J. AAFREEDI AND PRIYA SINGH
 PART 1
Narratives	17
 2. Violence and violations: betrayal narratives in atrocity accounts	 19
DENNIS B. KLEIN
 3. Holocaust survivors in Mexico: intersecting and conflicting narratives of open doors, welcoming society and personal hardships	 29
DANIELA GLEIZER AND Yael SIMAN
 4. Historical narratives, the perpetuation of trauma, and the work of Vamık Volkan	 45
REUVEN FIRESTONE
 PART 2
Revisionism and reconstruction	59
 5. Holocaust, propaganda, and the distortion of history in the former Soviet space	 61
CHARLES E. EHRLICH

6. The Genocide of 1971 in Bangladesh: lessons from history	73
SRIMANTI SARKAR
7. Holocaust denial and minimization in the Indian Urdu press	87
MD. MUDDASSIR QUAMAR
PART 3
Education	97
8. Holocaust education and remembrance in Australia: moving from family and community remembrance to human rights education	99
SUZANNE D. RUTLAND AND SUZANNE HAMPEL
9. New developments in Holocaust and genocide education in South Africa: the case study of the Johannesburg Holocaust & Genocide Centre	114
TALI NATES
10. A case of naive normalization? India's misbeliefs about Hitler and schooling on the Holocaust	126
ANUBHAV ROY
11. Holocaust education in India and its challenges	138
NAVRAS J. AAFREEDI
PART 4
Reflections	151
12. Sonderkommando Photo 4 and the portrayal of the invisible	153
DAVID PATTERSON
13. Overcoming "intimate hatreds": reflections on violence against Yezidis	167
TUTKU AYHAN AND GÜNEŞ MURAT TEZCÜR
14. The state and its margins: changing notions of marginality in Turkey	181
ANITA SENGUPTA

PART 5

Trauma 195

15. Pinochet's dictatorship and reflections on trauma in Chile:
how much have we learned in terms of human rights? 197

NANCY NICHOLLS LOPEANDÍA

PART 6

Memorialization 211

16. "Grassroots" Holocaust museums: revealing untold stories 213

STEPHANIE SHOSH ROTEM

17. Fabric, food, song: the quiet continuities in Bengali life
70 years after partition 224

RITUPARNA ROY

PART 7

Literature 239

18. The failure of secular publics and the rise of the Jewish religious public in Nathan Englander's: For the Relief of Unbearable Urges 241

FUZAIL ASAR SIDDIQI

PART 8

Dialogue and reconciliation 253

19. The 2002 Alexandria Summit and its follow-up 255

DAVID ROSEN

Index 263