
Contents

List of contributors	ix
Preface and acknowledgements	xiii

PART I
Introduction to collaborative care between carers of people with eating disorders and professional services	I
1 Introduction	3
JANET TREASURE
2 Eating disorders and the concept of working with families and other carers	7
JANET TREASURE AND ULRIKE SCHMIDT
3 The carers' perspective	20
VERONICA KAMERLING AND GRÁINNE SMITH
4 An ethico-legal account of working with carers in eating disorders	30
EMMA BALDOCK

PART II
Introduction to the theoretical underpinning	43
5 How do families cope when a relative has an eating disorder?	45
JANET TREASURE
6 Family processes as maintaining factors for eating disorders	60
JANET TREASURE, CHRISTOPHER WILLIAMS AND ULRIKE SCHMIDT

7 Understanding models of health behaviours and the processes used to facilitate change	84
JANET TREASURE
8 Changing behaviours in the family	104
JANET TREASURE
PART III
Different forms of intervention	123
9 Working with carers on an outpatient basis: the assessment of the family	125
JANET TREASURE
10 Writing as a tool for developing reflective capacity and emotional processing	150
JANET TREASURE AND JENNA WHITNEY
11 Family and carer workshops	167
JANET TREASURE, ANA ROSA SEPÚLVEDA, WENDY WHITAKER, GILL TODD AND CAROLINA LOPEZ
12 An intensive three-day programme with families preparing for transition from inpatient to outpatient care	174
WENDY WHITAKER, JANET TREASURE AND GILL TODD
13 Coaching methods of supportive skills-based training for carers	194
PAM MACDONALD AND MIRIAM GROVER
PART IV
Special cases	219
14 Reproductive function and parenting in people with an eating disorder history	221
JANET TREASURE, NADIA MICALI AND FABRICE MONNEYRON
15 The influence and importance of parents in care and treatment of an eating disorder	241
OLIVIA KYRIACOU, JANET TREASURE AND SIMONE RAENKER

PART VConclusion and appendices 251*16 What the patients say: an examination of what patients think about family interventions 253

JANET TREASURE, PAM MACDONALD AND LIZ GODDARD

17 The professional perspective 264

GILL TODD, WENDY WHITAKER AND PAM MACDONALD

Appendix 1: Toolkit for Carers: the caring role in eating disorders 267

Appendix 2: Eating Disorders Symptom Impact Scale (EDSIS) 276

Appendix 3: Accommodation and Enabling Scale for Eating Disorders (AESED) 278

Index 281