

Contents

|   |      |
|---|------|
| Table  | vii  |
| Acknowledgements   | viii |
| Notes on Contributors  | ix   |
| Abbreviations and Glossary of Terms  | xii  |
| 1 De-Stalinising Eastern Europe: The Dilemmasof RehabilitationMatthew Stibbe and Kevin McDermott                 | 1    |
| 2 Rehabilitation in the Soviet Union, 1953–1964:A Policy UnachievedMarc Elie                                     | 25   |
| 3 De-Stalinisation in Hungary from a Gendered Perspective:The Case of Júlia RajkAndrea Pető                      | 46   |
| 4 The Release and Rehabilitation of Victims of StalinistTerror in PolandPiotr Kłodoczny                          | 67   |
| 5 The Limits of Rehabilitation: The 1930s StalinistTerror and Its Legacy in Post-1953 East GermanyMatthew Stibbe | 87   |
| 6 The Rehabilitation Process in Czechoslovakia:Party and Popular ResponsesKevin McDermott and Klára Pínerová     | 109  |
| 7 Rehabilitation in Romania: The Case of Lucrețiu PătrășcanuCalin Goina  | 132  |
| 8 De-Stalinisation and Political Rehabilitations in BulgariaJordan Baev  | 150  |
| 9 The Rehabilitation of Stalin's Victims in Ukraine,1953–1964: A Socio-Legal PerspectiveOleg Bazhan              | 170  |

vi Contents

|    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 10 | The Fate of Stalinist Victims in Moldavia after 1953:Amnesty, Pardon and the Long Road to RehabilitationIgor Cașu | 186 |
| 11 | Latvian Deportees of the 1940s: Their Releaseand RehabilitationIrēna Saleniece                                    | 204 |
| 12 | The Amnesty and Rehabilitation of Victims of StalinistRepression in BelarusIryna Ramanava                         | 221 |
| 13 | Afterword: Stalinist Rehabilitations in a Pan-EuropeanPerspectiveMiriam Dobson                                    | 237 |
|    | Index   | 246 |